CARNEGIE

DUNFERMLINE TRUST

1 September 2006

Dear Tom,

I am writing further to our meeting, correspondence and exchange of emails of 28 August.

As indicated at our meeting the requests you have made of the Trust were considered at the meeting of Trustees yesterday evening and I am now in a position to respond on their behalf.

As we have previously discussed the supplemental Charter will not have completed its process of Royal assent and registration through the Scottish Executive until October when it becomes a published document which can be made available to the public. The actual Charter is printed directly by the Privy Council and we do not receive the document until its passage is complete. However in view of the perceived anxiety surrounding the content of the document the Trustees are able to make available a photocopy of the final draft to view here in the offices of the Trust if you wish to make an appointment to do so. Likewise, as previously indicated, the original Charter may be viewed in the same way.

There had also been a request for sight of the 1976 Minute of Agreement drawn up between the then District Council and the Trust for the maintenance and running of Pittencrieff Park. The Trustees do not see any difficulty in making this Agreement available to view but since it is between two parties are seeking the consent of the Council prior to taking such a step.

I will be on annual leave from today but if you telephone the office they will be able to make arrangements for you.

Yours sincerely,

Nora T C Rundell
