

Tom Minogue

From: "Carnegie.org Web Site Mail Box" <www@carnegie.org>
To: "Tom Minogue" <tomminogue@btinternet.com>
Sent: 18 September 2006 13:23
Subject: RE: Questions about Carnegie's bequest

This information is from our web site, www.carnegie.org: Carnegie Corporation of New York was founded by Andrew Carnegie in 1911. The Corporation's capital fund, originally donated by Carnegie at a value of about $135 million, had a market value of approximately $2.2 billion on September 30, 2005. It is expected that the Corporation's grant making will total more than $80 million during fiscal year 2005-2006.

-----Original Message-----

From: Tom Minogue [mailto:tomminogue@btinternet.com]
Sent: Friday, September 15, 2006 4:55 AM
To: Carnegie.org Web Site Mail Box
Subject: Questions about Carnegie's bequest

Dear Sir or Madam, can you advise me as to:

(a) What year the Carnegie Corporation of New York was founded as a charitable organisation?

(b) How much money did Andrew Carnegie give the Corporation to invest?

(c) What, in round terms, is the worth of the Corporation today i.e. how successful has the stewarding of Carnegie's bequest been?

(d) Approximately how much does the Corporation give away in grants each year?

Thanking you in anticipation of your assistance which is towards historical research into Andrew Carnegie, I am Tom Minogue, 94 Victoria Terrace, Dunfermline, Fife, KY12 0LU. Scotland, UK. Tel: 01383 729869

18/09/2006