Having in the past been critical of misrepresentation about the charitable status of the Alfred Stewart Trust I am happy to learn through the pages of your paper (DP 15 April?) that this entity has now been granted charitable status. In this instance the Charity Commission confirmed your report.

The terms of the trust were first registered in May 2008 but as the saying goes: "better late than never", and if the result of this is that the wishes of the late Alfred Stewart are carried out then good luck to the trustees who are tasked with this onerous responsibility.

I am sure we will hear much more about the Trust's good deeds in the coming years.
